Part 2A – Standard Terms and Conditions

1. Application

- 1.1 These terms form the standard terms and conditions of this Agreement and unless the context otherwise stated, shall be binding on all Clients and/or OPSL. If the Client is allowed to engage in margin trading and/or to use Electronic Trading Services provided by OPSL, the Client shall be further subject to the terms and conditions set out respectively in Part 2B and/or Part 2C hereof. If there is any inconsistency, the provisions for a particular service will prevail over general provisions.
- 1.2 The Client agrees to and hereby irrevocably appoint OPSL with full power and authority as the Client's true and lawful attorney, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to act for and on the Client's behalf for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Agreement and taking any action and execution any document or instrument in his name or in OPSL's own name which OPSL may deem necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement.

2. The Account

- 2.1 The Client confirms that all information provided in relation to the Account including information in the related Account Opening Form is complete and accurate. The Client will inform OPSL in writing of any changes to that information. It is the Client's responsibility to ensure Account accuracy and to notify OPSL immediately with regard to any discrepancies.
- 2.2 OPSL is authorized to conduct credit enquiries or check on the Client for the purpose of ascertaining the financial situation and investment objectives of the Client and to verify the information provided. The Client also understands that OPSL may provide the Client's information to credit reference agencies and in the event of default to a debt collection agent.
- 2.3 OPSL will keep information relating to the Account confidential, but may provide any such information to the regulators, law enforcement agencies and other competent authorities, including but not limited to the Exchange, the SFC and Independent Commission Against Corruption to comply with their requirements or requests for information or to any persons pursuant to any court orders or statutory provisions, even if the Account has been terminated prior to such request.
- 2.4 The Client's private information is collected and used by OPSL in accordance with OPSL's Client Data Policy a copy of which is available upon request.

3. Applicable Laws and Rules

- 3.1 All Transactions will be effected in accordance with all laws, rules, regulatory directives, bye-laws, customs and usages applying to OPSL. This includes the rules, codes and guidance of the Exchange, HKSCC and SFC from time to time. All actions taken by OPSL in accordance with such laws, rules, regulatory directives, bye-laws, customs and usages will be binding on the Client. The Client also agrees that irrespective of his country of domicile (or if the Client is a company, its place of incorporation), any dispute with OPSL may at OPSL's discretion be referred to the SFC, and not other securities regulators in any jurisdictions.
- 3.2 This Agreement is governed by, and may be enforced in accordance with, the laws of Hong Kong.
- 3.3 If the Client is an individual domiciled or a company incorporated outside Hong Kong, the Client shall, immediately upon demand by OPSL, appoint a person or an agent in Hong Kong to be his or its process agent to receive all notices and communications relating to any legal proceedings involving the Client, and the Client agrees that any service of any legal process on the process agent shall constitute sufficient service on the Client for purpose of legal proceedings in the Hong Kong courts.
- 3.4 No provision of this Agreement shall operate to remove, exclude or restrict any of the Client's rights or obligations of OPSL under the laws of Hong Kong.

4. Instructions and Transactions

- 4.1 OPSL will act as the Client's agent in effecting Transactions unless OPSL indicates (in the combined daily statement which includes the contract notes and receipts for the relevant Transaction or otherwise) that OPSL is acting as principal.
- 4.2 The Client agrees that OPSL shall not be accountable to the Client for any commissions, remuneration, rebates or other benefits which OPSL may receive from or offer to any person in respect of any Transaction or business conducted with the Client or on the Client's behalf.
- 4.3 The Client agrees that OPSL (including OPSL's directors, officers, licensed representatives and employees) does not provide tax and legal advice. If OPSL (including OPSL's directors, officers, licensed representatives and employees) solicit the sale of or recommend any financial product to you, the financial product must be reasonably suitable for you having regard to your financial situation, investment experience and investment objectives. No other provision of this agreement or any other document we may ask you to sign and no statement we may ask you to make derogates from this clause. Should the Client need investment advice from OPSL, a separate agreement has to be made between the Client and OPSL.

- 4.4 The Client or the Client's Authorized Person(s) may give Instructions to OPSL (which OPSL may in its absolute discretion reject) to effect Transactions or other transactions for the Client. OPSL may act on such Instructions given orally, in writing or electronically which purport, and which OPSL reasonably believes to come from the Client or the Client's Authorized Person(s) or to have been given on behalf of the Client. OPSL will not be under any duty to verify the capacity of the person(s) giving those Instructions.
- 4.5 Unless otherwise inform OPSL in writing, the Client confirms that the Client is the beneficial owner of the Securities under his Account free from any lien, charge, equity or encumbrance save as created by or under this Agreement and is ultimately responsible for originating the Instruction in relation to all Transactions. If, in relation to any particular Transaction in the Client's Account, the Client is not the person or entity (legal or otherwise) ultimately responsible for originating the Instruction or the person or entity (legal or otherwise) that stands to gain its commercial or economic benefit and/or bear its commercial or economic risk, the Client undertakes and agrees to provide information on the identity, address and contact and other details of such person or entity to OPSL before giving the Instruction to OPSL. The Client also undertakes and agrees to provide such information to OPSL, or direct to the relevant exchange, government agencies or regulators within two (2) Business Days of OPSL's written request and such undertaking and agreement will survive any termination of this Agreement.
- 4.6 The Client confirms that until such time as OPSL receives written notice from the Client to the contrary in respect of one or more specific Transactions, the Client will not give OPSL any Instruction to sell securities which is a short selling order (as defined in section 1 of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the SFO) to be executed at or through the Exchange.
- 4.7 Without prejudice to Clause 4.6 above, in respect of each short selling order to be transacted at or through the Exchange upon the Client's Instruction, the Client understands the relevant provisions of sections 170 and 171 of the SFO and its related subsidiary legislation and agrees to ensure compliance with the same by the Client and any other relevant persons.
- 4.8 On all Transactions, the Client will pay OPSL's commissions and charges, as notified to the Client, as well as applicable fees and levies imposed by the Exchange and/or the SFC, and all applicable stamp duties. OPSL may deduct such commissions, charges, levies, fees and duties from the Account. The Client acknowledges and agrees that the commission rates and fees are determined and set solely by OPSL, the Exchange, the SFC and other government agencies, and are subject to change at any time.
- 4.9 OPSL may determine the priority in the execution of the Client's Instructions having due regard to market practice, applicable regulations and fairness to all Clients.
- 4.10 OPSL may, without prior notice to the Client, combine for execution the Client's Instructions with the Instructions of other Clients. This may result in a more favorable or less favorable price being obtained for the Client than executing the Client's Instructions separately. Where there are insufficient Securities to satisfy the Instructions so combined, the Transactions will be allocated between Clients with due regard to market practice and fairness to Clients.
- 4.11 OPSL will not be liable for any delay or failure in the transmission of Instructions due to breakdown or collapse of communication facilities or for any other delay or failure beyond the control of OPSL.
- 4.12 By reason of physical restraints and rapid changes of Securities prices, OPSL may not always be able to execute the Client's Instructions in full or at the prices quoted at any specific time or "at best" or "at market" and the Client agrees to be bound by such executions.
- 4.13 All Instructions in respect of the Transactions given by the Client are good for the day on which they were given. They will be automatically cancelled if not executed by the close of trading on the Exchange or such other expiration date required by the Exchange. OPSL may execute these Instructions at any time prior to their automatic cancellation or receipt of cancellation Instructions, and the Client accepts full responsibility for the Transactions so executed.
- 4.14 The Client may request to cancel or amend their Instructions in respect of the Transactions but OPSL may at its discretion (such discretion not to be exercised in an unreasonable manner) refuse to accept any such request. These Instructions may be cancelled or amended only before execution. Cancellation of market Instructions is rarely possible as they are subject to immediate execution. In the case of full or partial execution of the Client's Instructions before cancellation, the Client accepts full responsibility for the executed Transactions and OPSL shall incur no liability in connection therewith.
- 4.15 The Client understands and agrees that OPSL may use a telephone record system to record conversations and Instructions with the Client and the Client's Authorized Persons. The Client acknowledges and warrants that each Authorized Person also consents to such recording.
- 4.16 The Client may request OPSL to subscribe for Securities offerings on the Client's behalf. OPSL may be required to provide warranty or make representation in respect of such application, including but not limited to the following:
- (a) that OPSL has due authority to make such application on the Client's behalf;
 - (b) that no other application is being made for the Client's benefit whether by the Client himself or by any other person other than the application submitted on the Client's behalf.

The Client hereby expressly authorizes OPSL to provide such warranty and representation to the Exchange or issuer of the relevant Securities. The Client acknowledges that the aforesaid declaration will be relied upon by the issuer of the relevant Securities in deciding whether or not to make any allotment of Securities in response to the application made by OPSL as the Client's agent.

- 4.17 At the Client's request, OPSL may provide financial accommodation to facilitate the subscription of Securities offerings, and, where applicable, for the continued holding of those Securities under a separate agreement to be made between the Client and OPSL.
- 4.18 The Client understands that OPSL generally does not accept stop-loss orders. If such orders are accepted, OPSL does not guarantee the execution of such orders.
- 4.19 The Client agrees that OPSL may, in its discretion and without giving the Client prior notice, prohibit or restrict the Client's ability to trade Securities through the Account. The Client agrees that OPSL is not liable for any losses and/or damages, actual or hypothetical, as a result of such restrictions.

5. Settlement

- 5.1 Unless otherwise agreed, in respect of each Transaction, unless OPSL is already holding sufficient cash or Securities on the Client's behalf to settle the Transaction, the Client will:
- (a) pay OPSL cleared funds or deliver Securities to OPSL in deliverable form; or
 - (b) otherwise ensure that OPSL has received such funds or Securities
- by such time as OPSL has notified the Client in relation to that Transaction. If the Client fails to do so, OPSL may on behalf of the Client:
- (i) in the case of a purchase Transaction, sell the purchased Securities; and
 - (ii) in the case of a sale Transaction, borrow and/or purchase Securities in order to settle the Transaction.
- 5.2 The Client will indemnify OPSL against any losses, costs, fees and expenses resulting from the Client's settlement failures.
- 5.3 The Client agrees to pay a penalty charge for each settlement failure at such rates and on such other terms as OPSL has stipulated at its discretion and notified the Client from time to time.
- 5.4 The Client agrees to pay interest on all overdue balances (including interest arising after a judgment debt is obtained against the Client) at such rates and on such other terms as OPSL has stipulated at its discretion and notified the Client from time to time. The Client agrees to pay for the costs and expenses of collection of the overdue balances and any unpaid deficiency in the Account(s), including without limited to attorney's fees, court costs and any other costs incurred or paid by OPSL.
- 5.5 The Client acknowledges that delivery of any Securities that OPSL may have purchased on behalf of the Client from the selling party is not guaranteed. In the case that OPSL has confirmed with the Client that the relevant purchase Transaction was completed but the selling party or its broker fails to deliver on the settlement date and OPSL has to purchase the Securities to settle the Transaction, the Client will not be responsible to OPSL for the costs of such purchase.

6. Safekeeping of Securities

- 6.1 Any Securities which are held by OPSL for safekeeping may, at OPSL's discretion:
- (a) (in the case of registrable Securities) be registered in the Client's name or in the name of OPSL's nominee; or
 - (b) be deposited, at the Client's costs, in safe custody in a designated account with OPSL's bankers or with any other institution which provides facilities for the safe custody of documents. In the case of Securities in Hong Kong, such institution shall be approved by the SFC as a provider of safe custody services.
- 6.2 Where Securities are not registered in the Client's name, any dividends or other benefits arising in respect of such Securities shall, when received by OPSL, be credited to the Client's Account or paid or transferred to the Client after deduction of the relevant charges, as agreed with OPSL. Where the Securities form part of a larger holding of identical Securities held for the Clients, the Client will be entitled to the same share of the benefits arising on the holding as the Client's share of the total holding.
- 6.3 The Client agrees to pay service charges upon the Account at such rates and on such other terms as OPSL has stipulated at its discretion and notified the Client from time to time in respect of the safe custody services.
- 6.4 Save for the Margin Client, OPSL as a broker who does not have the Client's written authority pursuant to section 7(2) of the Securities and Futures (Client Securities) Rules shall not:

Where such set-off, consolidation, combination or transfer requires the conversion of one currency into another, such conversion shall be calculated at the rate of exchange conclusively determined by OPSL to be applicable.

10. Amendment

- 10.1 OPSL may from time to time in its absolute discretion add, amend, delete or substitute any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement by giving the Client notice of such changes which will become effective from the date specified in such notice.

- 13.3 Upon termination of this Agreement, the Client will immediately pay to OPSL any and all amounts due or owing to it.
- 13.4 In case of any cash or Securities balances in the Account upon termination of this Agreement by way of notice (other than as a result of Default), the Client agrees to withdraw such balances within seven (7) days from the date of such termination. If the Client does not do so, the Client agrees that OPSL may on behalf of the Client and without any responsibility for any loss or consequence on its part sell or dispose of the Client's Securities in the market or in such manner and at such time and price as OPSL may reasonably determine and send to the Client at the Client's sole risk its cheque representing any net sale proceeds and credit balances in the Accounts to the Client's last known address.

- 14.5 The Client agrees to check regularly the Client's mailbox, electronic mailbox, facsimile machine and other sources of facilities through which the Client receives communication from OPSL. OPSL will not be responsible for any losses that arise from the Client's failures, delay or negligence to check such sources or facilities.
- 14.6 The Client understands, for the security and integrity of the Account, that OPSL may temporarily or permanently disable or restrict the Account, if and when the mails become undeliverable or are returned as a result of the Client's failure to provide, update and/or notify OPSL with most current and accurate Account information.

Part 3A – Risk Disclosure Statements for all Clients

The Client should be aware of the following potential risks in connection with securities trading.

Risk of securities trading

The prices of securities fluctuate, sometimes dramatically. The price of a security may move up or down, and may become valueless. It is as likely that losses will be incurred rather than profit made as a result of buying and selling securities.

Risk of trading Growth Enterprise Market stocks

Growth Enterprise Market (GEM) stocks involve a high investment risk. In particular, companies may list on GEM with neither a track record of profitability nor any obligation to forecast future profitability. GEM stocks may be very volatile and illiquid.

The Client should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration. The greater risk profile and other characteristics of GEM mean that it is a market more suited to professional and other sophisticated investors.

Current information on GEM stocks may only be found on the internet website operated by the Exchange. GEM Companies are usually not required to issue paid announcements in gazetted newspapers.

The Client should seek independent professional advice if the Client is uncertain of or have not understood any aspect of this risk disclosure statement or the nature and risks involved in trading of GEM stocks.

Risks of client assets received or held outside Hong Kong

Client assets received or held by OPSL outside Hong Kong are subject to the applicable laws and regulations of the relevant overseas jurisdiction which may be different from the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap.571) and the rules made thereunder. Consequently, such client assets may not enjoy the same protection as that conferred on client assets received or held in Hong Kong.

Risk of providing an authority to hold mail or to direct mail to third parties

If the Client provides OPSL with an authority to hold mail or to direct mail to third parties, it is important for the Client to promptly collect in person all contract notes and statements of the Client's account and review them in detail to ensure that any anomalies or mistakes can be detected in a timely fashion.

Risk of trading NASDAQ-AMEX securities at the Exchange

The securities under the Nasdaq-Amex Pilot Program ("PP") are aimed at sophisticated investors. The Client should consult OPSL and become familiarized with the PP before trading in the PP securities. The Client should be aware that the PP securities are not regulated as a primary or secondary listing on the Main Board or the GEM of the Exchange.

Part 3B – Additional Risk Disclosure Statements for Margin Client

In addition to Part 3A, the Margin Client should be aware of the following potential risks in connection with margin trading.

Risk of providing an authority to repledge the Client's securities collateral etc.

There is risk if the Client provides OPSL with an authority that allows it to apply the Client's securities or securities collateral pursuant to a securities borrowing and lending agreement, repledge the Client's securities collateral for financial accommodation or deposit the Client's securities collateral as collateral for the discharge and satisfaction of its settlement obligations and liabilities.

If the Client's securities or securities collateral are received or held by OPSL in Hong Kong, the above arrangement is allowed only if the Client consents in writing. Moreover, unless the Client is a professional investor, the Client's authority must specify the period for which it is current and be limited to not more than twelve (12) months. If the Client is a professional investor, these restrictions do not apply.

Additionally, the Client's authority may be deemed to be renewed (i.e. without the Client's written consent) if OPSL issues the Client a reminder at least fourteen (14) days prior to the expiry of the authority, and the Client does not object to such deemed renewal before the expiry date of the Client's then existing authority.

The Client is not required by any law to sign these authorities. But an authority may be required by OPSL, for example, to facilitate margin lending to the Client or to allow the Client's securities or securities collateral to be lent to or deposited as collateral with third parties. OPSL should explain to the Client the purposes for which one of these authorities is to be used.

If the Client signs one of these authorities and the Client's securities or securities collateral are lent to or deposited with third parties, those third parties will have a lien or charge on the Client's securities or securities collateral. Although OPSL is responsible to the Client for securities or securities collateral lent or deposited under the Client's authority, a default by it could result in the loss of the Client's securities or securities collateral.

A cash account not involving securities borrowing and lending is available from most licensed or registered persons. If the Client does not require margin facilities or does not wish the Client's securities or securities collateral to be lent or pledged, the Client should not sign the above authorities and ask to open this type of cash account.

Risk of margin trading

The risk of loss in financing a transaction by deposit of collateral is significant. The Client may sustain losses in excess of the Client's cash and any other assets deposited as collateral with OPSL. Market conditions may make it impossible to execute contingent orders, such as "stop-loss" or "stop-limit" orders. The Client may be called upon at short notice to make additional margin deposits or interest payments. If the required margin deposits or interest payments are not made within the prescribed time, the Client's collateral may be liquidated without the Client's consent. Moreover, the Client will remain liable for any resulting deficit in the Client's account and interest charged on the Client's account. The Client should therefore carefully consider whether such a financing arrangement is suitable in light of the Client's own financial position and investment objectives.

Part 3C – Additional Risk Disclosure Statements for eTrade Client

In addition to Part 3A, the eTrade Client should be aware of the following potential risks in connection with the use of Electronic Trading Services.

Risk of electronic trading services

The access, communication and conducting transactions over the internet or other electronic means or facilities involve the use of public networks and represent an attractive target for attacks by intruders. Should intruders infiltrate the electronic trading system of OPSL and obtain sensitive data and information or create bugs or virus which sabotages its function, the electronic trading system (including the Client's account) may be damaged. While various steps and procedures (e.g. the use of login password, cryptography, firewall) have been taken and/or implemented by OPSL to protect unauthorized access to electronic trading system and the Client's account, there can be no assurance that such steps and procedures can prevent or respond to all forms of attacks in a timely or effective manner.

Internet or any other electronic means are, due to unpredictable traffic congestion and other reasons, an inherently unreliable medium of communication and that such unreliability is beyond the control of OPSL. As a result of such unreliability, there may be delays in the transmission and receipt of instructions or other information (e.g. canceling or changing the Client's original instructions), delays in execution or execution of the Client's instructions at prices different from those prevailing at the time the Client's instructions were given, transmission interruption or breakdown and/or for some reason OPSL may not be able to act on the Client's instructions at all. If the Client subsequently give instructions canceling or changing the Client's original instructions, OPSL will not accept them if it has already acted on the Client's original instruction or there is insufficient time to act on the Client's subsequent instruction. The Client should therefore give instructions in good time before the closes of the market.

Information and data provided through the electronic trading services relating to securities and the securities markets has been obtained from any securities exchanges and markets and from other third party service providers. Owing to market volatility, possible delay in data transmission process and other reasons, the information and data may not be accurate, complete, timely and in correct sequence. Thus any reliance on such information and data may lead to incorrect investment decisions and/or other actions.
